IN REPLY REFER TO:

Office of the Commandant

6 JUN 1973

Dear General Walters:

On behalf of the students, our National Strategy Seminar guests, and the faculty of the College, I want to thank you for your outstanding presentation to the Seminar.

As I mentioned during my closing remarks, your address was the most complete tour of the world that we have received this year; it was ideal for our purposes. All of us appreciated particularly your candid and eloquent answers to the questions from the floor.

It was a distinct pleasure to have you back at the College again and we are indebted to you for participating in our Seminar lecture program in such a splendid manner. Again, thank you for taking the time from a hectic schedule to speak to us. We look forward to welcoming you back in the future.*

Sincerely,

FRANKLIN M. DAVIS, JR.
Major General, USA
Commandant

Lieutenant General Vernon A. Walters, USA
Deputy Director, Central Intelligence Agency

* Will write you later regarding some possible dates.
